Executive Development Program to be launched as a joint effort of the Civil Service Commission and the Office of Management and Budget to the problems of evaluation of training courses and job-rotation. The relatively new breed of manpower specialists and career development officers were well represented - this "type" appears to be a kind of amalgamation of the functions and duties of a personnel officer and a training officer; only the older men (circa WWII) had had experience as trainers or personnel officers.

4. MEDC

Student critiques from the recently completed Midcareer course rated the evening with Colonel White as the most "appreciated" special event of the entire course. His observations on the "current scene" in the Agency coupled with reminiscence of Agency personalities and events seemed a perfect balance.
